APPLICATION FORM
Editor, Annals of Behavioral Medicine (2025-2029)

This completed form is limited to no more than 5 total pages.
AI-generated responses to these questions are prohibited.

1. Background

1A. Biographical narrative, including current position and how serving as editor would fit into your existing professional responsibilities

1B. Summary of editorial and publishing experience

2. Vision

2A. Vision for advancing the science of behavioral medicine via the journal

2B. Alignment of your vision with SBM's current strategic plan

2C. Vision for increasing readership and other forms of engagement with readers, authors, and others (either from editorial office efforts or in partnership with Oxford University Press)

2D. Perspective on journal's role with regard to transparency and openness (COS TOP guidelines can serve as a point of reference)

2E. Ideas for new developments for the journal, including in the areas of diversity, equity and inclusion

2F. Ideas on how to capitalize on partnership with Oxford University Press

2G. Major challenges on the horizon for the journal and suggestions for addressing them

3. Journal Operations

3A. Specific strategies you would implement for managing journal operations to ensure timely review and decision

3B. Specific strategies you would implement for managing journal operations to ensure high-quality publications

3C. Strategy for engaging editorial team, publisher, and SBM leadership

3D. Perspective on the journal moving from hybrid open access to gold open access

3E. Philosophy about artificial intelligence (AI) in publishing and how that inform your work as editor

4. Additional Thoughts (Optional)

4A.